Port Jefferson Station, NY- On March 25, Legislator Sarah Anker attended The Boss Lady Club's networking event at The Meadow Club.

"It was great to be in the company of so many enthusiastic women celebrating not only their personal successes but their vision of helping others to succeed," said Legislator Anker. "Alexandria's energy and focus to galvanize support for women in business was evident in the large turnout and overall enjoyment of the attendees."

"It was an honor and a privilege to have Suffolk County Legislator Sarah Anker attend and speak at our event," said Alexandria Pfleger, The Boss Lady Club's Founder and CEO. "She is an inspiration to many of the ladies and her words were especially empowering. We are all very grateful! It was a wonderful surprise and I cannot thank her enough."

The Boss Lady Club is a women's entrepreneurial networking and empowerment group on Long Island. It started as a Facebook group called Boss Ladies of Long Island on February 9, 2015. The group grew by the hundreds in a matter of days along with the demand for their first event, "The Boss Lady Club's First Ladies Night."
